CALL FOR APPLICATIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN DIGITAL SKILLS TRAINING

UNICEF IN PARTNERSHIP WITH MAKERERE UNIVERSITY BUSINESS SCHOOL

Are you an adolescent or youth who…

- is between the age of 15-24 years old?
- is out-of-school?
- is coming from a vulnerable background?
- wants to learn advanced digital skills required for the 21st century?
- is available to attend training for three (3) months?
- is motivated to motivated to acquire productive digital skills?
- can easily access Makerere University Business School - Nakawa Campus?

Then you are eligible to apply and participate in the digital skills program for adolescents and youths.

What is the Digital Skills Training program?

The Digital Skills Training program is an initiative of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) in partnership with Makerere University Business School. The program targets vulnerable youths and adolescents in Uganda. The program will be conducted at Makerere University Business School, Nakawa Campus.

What are the benefits of this program for you?

The selected participants will have the following as their takeaways:

1. Up to three months of digital skills training
2. Certificate of successful completion
3. Internship opportunities for participants who excel
4. Digital productivity skills to enhance access to employment opportunities

How does one apply?

1. Download the attached application form, complete it with the required information, scan it and save it as your "DST-FirstName-LastName". Send an email to ictcentre@mubs.ac.ug and attach the document. The subject line should read "Application for UNICEF Digital Skills Training". Alternatively, you may submit the completed form at the ICT Centre, MUBS Annex, Bugolobi.
2. You might be approached by our field teams, who will help you complete the application.

What is the submission deadline?

The application deadline is Saturday, June 7th, 2025 at 23:59, East African Time.